How to Register to Vote:

- To register, print the voter registration form by clicking here, and mail it to your local election authority.
- Re-register to vote if you have moved, changed your name, or would like to declare an official party affiliation. If your voter registration information has not changed, you do not need to re-register.
- Mail in registration forms must be postmarked or received by October 9, 2012.

What to Bring on Election Day:

- Bring a photo ID with your current address, such as a Kentucky driver's license, your state ID, or a US Passport.
- If you do not have a photo ID with a current address, bring two IDs that contain your name and address, such as a utility bill, a bank statement, a paycheck, etc.

- You cannot be turned away from voting because you did not bring proper identification. If you do not have proper ID, you can use a provisional ballot.

Absentee Voting:

- Absentee voting is available for registered voters that qualify.
- Request an absentee voting application by clicking here, and mail it to your local election authority.
- Absentee ballot requests must be returned in person or mailed to your local election authority by October 30, 2012.
- All absentee ballots must be received by your local election authority before 6:00 p.m. on Election Day.
- Voters are strongly encouraged to go to the polls to vote if possible.

Early Voting:

- Early voting is not available in Kentucky.

Your Rights as a Kentucky Voter are as Follows:

- To vote in the General Election if you have registered by October 9, 2012.
- To have questions concerning voting procedures answered and to receive assistance if needed.
- To vote without being intimidated, threatened, or coerced.
- To vote if you are eligible to do so even if you do not bring an ID to the polls.
- To vote using a provisional ballot if your registration comes into question.
- If you feel that your rights are violated or you witness a violation of rights in the registration or voting process, please contact the Kentucky State Board of Elections at (502) 573-7100.
- Your vote is private – The ballots are processed in such a way that your identity will not be distinguishable from your ballot.

Due to CAIR's 501(c)3 status, CAIR does not endorse any specific candidate or campaign and cannot give advice about how you should vote.

Major newspapers may produce a guide to candidate positions.

The Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) is a non-profit grassroots organization dedicated to presenting an Islamic perspective on issues of importance to the American public. CAIR is the largest American Muslim civil rights and advocacy organization in the United States, serving the interests of more than seven million American Muslims. CAIR's mission is to enhance a general understanding of Islam, encourage dialogue, protect civil liberties, empower American Muslims and build coalitions that promote justice and mutual understanding.
